Dear Parents/Carers,

Re: Strike Action

You may be aware from media coverage that the second day of strike action will take place on:
Tuesday 28th February 2023.

I'm getting in touch to give you as much notice as possible that learning may be disrupted on the above date. Staff do not have to inform me if they are striking, although all did during the last strike action, which meant I could inform you before the day.

We recommend that you start to make alternative childcare arrangements for these dates in case your child's class teacher is striking.

I'm sorry about the potential disruption to you and to your child's education. I understand that this situation may be frustrating and ask that all members of our school community continue to treat each other with respect.

Thank you to all the parents who supported me and the school during the previous strike day and realising I cannot plan for the unknown entirely. The staff have been as helpful as possible and I thank them for this. I aim to keep school open for the classes not affected, where possible. Classes that are affected, will be closed, hopefully with notice, but this may happen on the day if necessary, due to Health and Safety considerations of the children.

I am working closely with our staff union representatives to keep up to date with the situation, and I will inform you of the final arrangements as soon as possible.

Kind regards,

H. Atkinson-Smith

Mrs. H. Atkinson-Smith
